“Our Town, Our Schools, Our Money” on Feb. 10

As Concord prepares for the spring Annual Town Meeting, thoughts turn to town and school budgets and how current economic challenges will affect our community. Voters will be asked to approve those budgets, so the League of Women Voters of Concord-Carlisle (LWVCC) is offering an opportunity for all residents to learn about the issues and participate actively and knowledgeably in the budget process. Please join your neighbors and friends at LWVCC’s open forum, “Our Town, Our Schools, Our Money: Facing Concord’s Financial Challenges,” on Wednesday, February 10, 2010, at 7:30 p.m. in the Town House hearing room, 22 Monument Square, Concord.

The forum’s panel discussion will feature Chris Whelan, Town Manager; Tony Logalbo, Town Finance Director; Diana Rigby, Superintendent of Schools; and John Flaherty, Deputy Superintendent of for Administration and Finance. All members of the public are welcome, and refreshments will be served. The program will be of interest to residents of Carlisle, as well as Concord. For more information, contact Communications@lwvcc.com or 978-369-3842.

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan, issues-oriented organization of women and men of all ages and backgrounds. Visit www.lwvcc.com for information on voting and elections, programs and activities, membership and more.
