Web Publishing Policy

Adopted by LWVCC Board on January 11, 2006

LWVCC web site protects its members' privacy and security from Internet fraud and SPAM. Without explicit instruction, the LWVCC web site does not publish home addresses, phone numbers, or personal email addresses.

Addresses of meeting places will be published without association to people's names.

When a document is sent to LWVCC Webmaster with a request that the document be distributed, it is the sender's responsibility to remove any sensitive personal information for web publishing. LWVCC Webmaster will publish the document as it is.

Group or single photos can be published on LWVCC web site with individuals' names in caption.

Any documents or photos must be approved by the LWVCC President or the Executive Committee of the LWVCC Board before web publication.
